

Press Release

Milan, 21 June 2017 - At the meetings held last 15 and 16 June, the Company expressed its willingness to the Trade Unions to embark on a negotiated path to manage the reorganization process, given the crisis affecting non-journalistic staff.

Following a broad exchange of views, the parties, while acknowledging the progress made, failed to find common ground on a number of issues contained in the plan.

Taking note of such failure and the mandatory timelines to launch the business recovery plan, the Company has initiated the administrative procedures for the acknowledgment of income support measures, with the hope, nonetheless, of reaching an agreement during the administrative phase of the procedure.
