

Press Release

Gruppo 24 ORE presents SOLUZIONI 24 FISCO, the integrated system for accountants

A single platform with the whole range of contents and useful services for the profession always a click away.

Starting 17 June, SOLUZIONI 24 FISCO, the integrated system for accountants, will be available online. The system contains and integrates the whole range of information tools designed by Gruppo 24 ORE for professionals working in the tax, corporate, bankruptcy and insolvency proceedings, financial reporting, accounting, finance and control fields.

News, legal theory, information, documentation, software and services are the distinguishing features of this new product, available online at www.s24f.ilsole24ore.com, and on DVD-ROM starting from July, that make it an all-round, ideal work tool addressing the specific needs regarding information, professional updating and business activities.

For the first time ever, a single platform presents the Frizzera System, the digital version of Il Sole 24 ORE, the archive complete with Norme e Tributi articles, the Sole 24 ORE.com news, the Guida Normativa online daily, legal theory edited by leading scholars, all the official documentation, the Esperto Risponde of Sole 24 ORE, the e-learning solutions with learning credits, the questions & answers feature, the Banca Dati del Commercialista containing all the regulations, the BDC News daily, the circulars for professionals and clients, the InformaStudi exclusively from the IRDCEC (Research Institute of Public Accountants and Accounting Experts), the Gruppo 24 ORE periodicals and books, the Telefisco guides, the TG del Commercialista, as well as software and management applications, charts, forms and deadlines.

SOLUZIONI 24 FISCO's added bonus is its innovative functions and graphics, which make it an extremely user-friendly and effective product for professionals and industry operators.

Through SOLUZIONI 24 FISCO, Gruppo 24 ORE aims to strengthen its leadership in the professional publishing market, with a leading-edge tool also in terms of technology: a home page structure modelled on the front page of a daily and updated regularly throughout the day, a highly versatile and powerful search engine, an easy-to-use and extremely customisable navigation menu with contents always a click away, optimized user performance and full compatibility with the most popular browsers (Microsoft Internet Explorer, Firefox Mozilla, Google Chrome, Apple Safari).
