

Press Release

Elisabetta Floccari new Chief Financial Officer of 24 ORE Group

Milan, 17 July 2023 - Starting today, Elisabetta Floccari takes on the position of Chief Financial Officer of the 24 ORE Group.

Over the span of her career, Ms. Floccari has gained considerable experience in administration, finance, and control, particularly as CFO for top-tier companies in the engineering, automation systems, and construction industries, where she also oversaw M&As both nationally and internationally. She has further enhanced her professional profile by acquiring skills in ESG and completing a Master's degree in Sustainability Management at Ca' Foscari University of Venice in 2022.

Ms. Floccari was previously Group CFO of C2Mac Group S.p.A., a role she also held from 2020 to 2021 at Piovan S.p.A., a leading listed company in the development and production of systems for the automation of production processes.

Before that, from 2013 to 2016, she was Group Accounting, Tax and Corporate Affairs Director of Permasteelisa Group, where she later also took on the role of CFO EMEA Region and, from 2016 to 2020, of General Manager of the Italian parent company.

A certified public accountant and auditor, Ms. Floccari graduated cum laude in Economics and Business from the University of Trieste. She started her career as a Senior Tax Consultant at the tax law firm of Arthur Andersen networks and later worked at Ernst & Young.
