THE 24 ORE GROUP DENIES INDISCRETIONS ABOUT CHAIRMAN EDOARDO GARRONE

Milan, 14 February 2024 – With regard to the rumours reported in the last days by some press entities according to which Edoardo Garrone, chairman of the 24 ORE Group, intends to resign from his position in the event of his candidacy for the presidency of Confindustria, the 24 ORE Group would like to point out that these rumours are absolutely groundless.

In fact there is no legislative or regulatory provision that establishes the incompatibility between the candidacy, or rather the possible future election by the Confindustria Shareholders' Meeting, and the chairmanship of the 24 ORE Group, nor Edoardo Garrone has communicated or ventilated the intention to resign from his position in the Company. Chairman Garrone will therefore continue to cover his role within the 24 ORE Group in the primary interest of the Shareholders and all Stakeholders.
